

THE AUSTRALIAN SOCIETY OF COSMETIC CHEMISTS
A.B.N. 64 002 242 462

Affiliated with the IFSCC

Constitution of the Australian Society of Cosmetic Chemists

Accepted at ASCC Annual General Meeting
1st May 2013

Revision One:

Update to Senior Member and Senior Full Member

Update to 6.15 (iv) reference of clause from XX to 6.13

Preamble

History

The Australian Society of Cosmetic Chemists, ASCC, was founded in 1961.

There has been a long involvement with the international cosmetic scientific community and in 1963 the ASCC became affiliated with the International Federation of Societies of Cosmetic Chemists. This affiliation has led to the ASCC hosting three the 1978 IFSCC Congress, 1996 IFSCC Congress and the 2009 IFSCC Conference

Members of the ASCC have been actively involved with the IFSCC with Peter Strasser (1978), Alan Oppenheim (1996) and Gavin Greenoak (2010) all serving as Presidents of the IFSCC.

ASCC members have also been recipients of IFSCC awards with Michael Adney and Kerry Greive both receiving the Maison G de Navarre Young Scientist award.

The purpose of this Constitution is to bring the original Memorandum and Articles of Association in line with current Australian Corporate Law.

Taxation

The ASCC is a not-for-profit association and as such is exempt from Income Tax on the basis that it is a Scientific ASCC established for the encouragement of science.

The ASCC is not a charitable organisation.

The ASCC is registered for Goods and Services Tax.

- (e) If a member requests that any information contained on the register about the member (other than the member's name) not be available for inspection, then that information must not be made available for inspection.

- (f) A member must not use information about a person obtained from the register to contact or send material to the person, other than for:
- the purposes of sending the person a newsletter,
 - a notice in respect of a meeting or other event
 - relating to the ASCC or other material relating to the ASCC, or
 - any other purpose necessary to comply with a requirement of the Act or the Regulation.
- (g) Membership information will not be divulged to third parties

Section 6.18 Members' liabilities

- (a) The liability of a member of the ASCC to contribute towards the payment of the debts and liabilities of the ASCC or the costs, charges and expenses of the winding up of the ASCC is limited to the amount, if any, unpaid by the member in respect of membership of the ASCC as required by Section 6.13.

Section 6.19 Resolution of disputes

- (a) A dispute between a member and another member (in their capacity as members) of the ASCC, or a dispute between a member or members and the ASCC, are to be referred to a community justice centre for mediation under the Community Justice Centres Act 1983.
- (b) If a dispute is not resolved by mediation within 3 months of the referral to a community justice centre, the dispute is to be referred to arbitration.
- (c) The Commercial Arbitration Act 1984 applies to any such dispute referred to arbitration.

Section 6.20 Disciplining of members

- (a) A complaint may be made to the Council by any person that a member of the ASCC:
- has refused or neglected to comply with a provision or provisions of this constitution, or
 - has wilfully acted in a manner prejudicial to the interests of the ASCC.
- (b) The Council may refuse to deal with a complaint if it considers the complaint to be trivial or vexatious in nature.
- (c) If the Council decides to deal with the complaint, the Council:
- must cause notice of the complaint to be served on the member concerned, and
 - must give the member at least 14 days from the time the notice is served within which to make submissions to the Council in connection with the complaint, and
 - must take into consideration any submissions made by the member in connection with the complaint.

- (d) The Council may, by resolution, expel the member from the ASCC or suspend the member from membership of the ASCC if, after considering the complaint and any submissions made in connection with the complaint, it is satisfied that the facts alleged in the complaint have been proved and the expulsion or suspension is warranted in the circumstances.
- (e) If the Council expels or suspends a member, the secretary must, within 7 days after the action is taken, cause written notice to be given to the member of the action taken, of the reasons given by the Council for having taken that action and of the member's right of appeal under Section 6.21.
- (f) The expulsion or suspension does not take effect:
 - until the expiration of the period within which the member is entitled to appeal against the resolution concerned, or
 - if within that period the member exercises the right of appeal, unless and until the ASCC confirms the resolution under Section 6.21, whichever is the later.

Section 6.21 Right of appeal of disciplined member

- (a) A member may appeal to the ASCC in general meeting against a resolution of the Council under Section 6.20, within 7 days after notice of the resolution is served on the member, by lodging with the secretary a notice to that effect.
- (b) The notice may, but need not, be accompanied by a statement of the grounds on which the member intends to rely for the purposes of the appeal.
- (c) On receipt of a notice from a member under Section 6.21 the secretary must notify the Council which is to convene a general meeting of the ASCC to be held within 28 days after the date on which the secretary received the notice.
- (d) At a general meeting of the ASCC convened under Section 9.03:
 - (i) no business other than the question of the appeal is to be transacted, and
 - (ii) the Council and the member must be given the opportunity to state their respective cases orally or in writing, or both, and
 - (iii) the members present are to vote by secret ballot on the question of whether the resolution should be confirmed or revoked.
 - (iv) the appeal is to be determined by a simple majority of votes cast by members of the ASCC

Article VII. The Council

Section 7.01 Powers of Council

- (a) The Council is the governing body of the ASCC and acts as the Board of Directors of the company.
- (b) The business of the ASCC shall be managed by the Council who may pay all expenses incurred in promoting and registering the ASCC and may exercise all such powers of the ASCC as are not by the Act or by these Articles required to be exercised by the ASCC in general meeting, subject, nevertheless to this Constitution, to the provisions of the Act and to such regulation being not inconsistent with the aforesaid Constitution or provisions as may be prescribed by the ASCC in general meeting; PROVIDED THAT any rule, regulation or policy of the ASCC made by the Council may be disallowed by the ASCC in general meeting and PROVIDED FURTHER that no resolution or regulation made by the ASCC in general meeting shall invalidate any prior act of the Council which would have been valid if that resolution or regulation had not been passed or made.
- (c) The Council may exercise all the power of the ASCC to borrow money and to mortgage or charge its property or any part thereof and to issue debentures and other securities whether outright or as security for any debt, liability or obligation of the ASCC.
- (d) For the purpose of clause (c) of the Constitution the rate of interest payable in respect of money lent by members to the ASCC shall not exceed the lowest rate paid for the time being by banks in the State in respect of term deposits.
- (e) All cheques, promissory notes, drafts, bills of exchange and other negotiable instruments and all receipts for money paid to the ASCC shall be signed, drawn, accepted, endorsed and otherwise executed as the case may be by any two members of the Council or in such other manner as the Council from time to time determines.

Section 7.02 Chapters

- (a) The ASCC may be divided into Chapters. Each Chapter shall have twenty or more full members, and the full members shall be a majority. This meets the requirements of the I.F.S.C.C. Constitution.
- (b) Chapters may be based on geographical areas or by other means as approved at a general meeting.
- (c) For the purposes of electing Councillors' and voting at general meetings, members can only belong to one (1) Chapter. This does not prevent members participating in any Chapter.
- (d) The Chapters as formed under Section 7.02 (a) shall be titled according to Council designations.

- (e) Chapters shall be formed provided that the regions or group applying for Chapter status comply with Section 7.02 (a). Should the regions or group cease to comply with Section 7.02 (a), the members will be absorbed into the nearest Chapter, or as decided by Council.

Section 7.03 Election of Council

- (a) Nominations of candidates for Council must be:
 - (i) Made in writing, signed by two members of the ASCC and accompanied by the written consent of the candidate indicating which Chapter they are nominating for, and
 - (ii) All signatories on the nomination must be members of the Chapter for which the candidate has nominated, and
 - (iii) Be delivered to the secretary of the ASCC at least 14 days before the date fixed for holding the annual general meeting.
- (b) Immediately prior to the ASCC annual general meeting each Chapter will elect, from the nominations received, one eligible member for every forty members, or majority part thereof, to Council. A ballot may be necessary as per Section 7.03 (f).
- (c) If insufficient nominations are received to fill all vacancies on Council, the candidates nominated are all taken to be elected and further nominations are to be received at the annual general meeting.
- (d) If the number of nominations received is equal to the number of vacancies to be filled, the persons nominated are taken to be elected.
- (e) If the number of nominations exceeds the number of vacancies to be filled, a ballot is to be held.
- (f) The ballot for election of Council is to be conducted at the annual general meeting in such usual and proper manner as the Council may direct.
- (g) The members so elected shall be confirmed at the ASCC annual general meeting following the aforesaid elections.
- (h) The members elected to Council shall hold office until the next annual general meeting when they shall retire and subject to Section 7.03 (j, n and o) hereof shall be eligible for re- election.
- (i) The members so elected and confirmed shall, together with the immediate past President, constitute the Council for the time being of the ASCC.

- (j) Forthwith, upon the election and confirmation of the members of the Council, the Council shall meet and, subject to Section 7.03 (j, n and o), hereof, elect office bearers from their numbers PROVIDED THAT:-
- (i) The President and Vice President shall not be members of the same Chapter;
 - (ii) The Honorary Registrar shall be either a life member, full member, senior full member.
 - (k) The Chairman of the aforesaid meeting shall be the immediate past President or if he shall decline or otherwise not be available to chair the meeting, the members of the Council shall elect such other person of their number to act as Chairman.
 - (l) In the case of equality of votes in respect of voting on any position of office bearer, the Chairman shall have a casting vote.
 - (m) The office bearers of the ASCC shall consist of a President, Vice President, Honorary Treasurer and Honorary Registrar, all of whom shall be members of the ASCC.
 - (n) No person will hold more than one (1) office bearer position.
 - (o) The office of President shall not be held by the same person for more than three (3) consecutive years but after the lapse of a period of twelve (12) months after the completion of the aforesaid period of three (3) years, any such person shall be eligible for re-election as a President of the ASCC.
 - (p) Any member of Council who is not an office bearer of Council at the date on which an annual general meeting is called shall not be eligible to serve on the Council during the next term of the Council if he has served three or more consecutive years as a member of Council.
 - (q) The ASCC may from time to time, by ordinary resolution passed at a general meeting, increase or reduce the number of office bearers and other members of the Council.
 - (r) The Council shall have power at any time and from time to time to appoint any eligible member to the Council, either to fill a casual vacancy or as an addition to the existing office bearers or other members of the Council but so that the total number of office bearers or other members of the Council shall not at any time exceed the number fixed in accordance with these articles PROVIDED ALWAYS that any appointment to fill a casual vacancy in the Council or office bearers shall be made from eligible members of the Chapter of which the person causing the casual vacancy is or was a member.
 - (s) Any office bearer or other member of the Council so appointed shall only hold office until the next following annual general meeting.

Section 7.04 Removal of Council Members

- (a) The ASCC may by ordinary resolution of which twenty-one (21) days notice has been given, remove any office bearer or other member of the Council before the expiration of his period of office and may by an ordinary resolution appoint another eligible member in his stead PROVIDED ALWAYS that any such appointment shall be made from eligible members of the Chapter of which the person removed was a member.

Section 7.05 Council Position becoming vacant

- (a) The office of a member of the Council shall become vacant if the member:-
- (i) becomes bankrupt or makes any arrangement or composition with his creditors generally;
 - (ii) becomes prohibited from being a director of a company by reason of any order made under the Act;
 - (iii) ceases to be a member of the Committee by operation of Section 121 of the Act.
 - (iv) becomes of unsound mind or a person whose person or estate is liable to be dealt with in any way under the law relating to mental health;
 - (v) resigns his office by notice in writing to the ASCC;
 - (vi) does not attend more than two consecutive Council meetings without the previous consent of Council;
 - (vii) holds any office of profit under the ASCC;
 - (viii) ceases to be a member of the ASCC; or
 - (ix) is directly or indirectly interested in any contract or proposed contract with the ASCC. PROVIDED ALWAYS that nothing in this paragraph shall affect the operation of clause 3 of the Memorandum of Association of the ASCC.

Article VIII. Office Bearers
